

The Achievement Center Welcomes Students

“Take Action—Register Now” is the students’ call to action by The Achievement Center Staff at Dabney S. Lancaster Community College. Qualifying students at DSLCC will receive a letter this week requesting that they register at The Achievement Center on the main campus in Warren Hall, Room 425, or at the Rockbridge Regional Center in Lexington. Registration with The Achievement Center initiates a variety of services to assist students in reaching their educational and career goals. Dr. Sandra Smock, Director of The Achievement Center, encourages all students who receive a letter to register. Call 540/863-2859 for more information.

Needing outside-of-class assistance? Do you want to succeed? FREE tutoring is available on the Clifton Forge campus and at the Rockbridge Regional Center! To request a tutor, contact Joy Broyles, Tutor Coordinator, by calling 540/863-2861, emailing jbroyles@dslcc.edu, or stopping by The Achievement Center. Tutors are assigned on a first-come, first-served basis. Sign up today!

Feeling overwhelmed? The Achievement Center has a Mentoring Program that is designed to provide support for first-time students and also for students who might profit from having extra support. The Program’s purpose is to provide a foundation for student success. To request a mentor, contact Carol Corson, Student Development Advisor, by calling 540/863-2914, emailing ccorson@dslcc.edu or stopping by The Achievement Center, Warren Hall.
